

Homepage

Governor Glendening

Agenda

Executive Orders

Governor's Staff

Press Releases

Schedule

Speeches & Issues

Technology

Governor's Office Press Photos 2000

View the Responsible Gun Safety Act signing ceremony \(Real Media\).

Video courtesy of John Aubuchon, © 2000 Maryland Public Television. (MSA SC 5291-1-1)

Click on photo to get an full size color jpg or click below image on tif link for full-size tif.

full-size tif

ANNAPOLIS, MD (April 11, 2000) * President Clinton and Lt. Gov. Kathleen Kennedy Townsend look on as Maryland Governor Parris Glendening signs the Responsible Gun Safety Act with House Speaker Casper Taylor (L) and Senate President Mike Miller (R).

full-size tif

ANNAPOLIS, MD (April 11, 2000) * President Bill Clinton, Maryland Governor Parris Glendening, and Lt. Governor Kathleen Kennedy Townsend take a moment to pose with Maryland children who have taken a public stand against handgun violence at the Responsible Gun Safety Act bill signing. This is the first time that President Clinton has attended a bill signing during his term in office.

full-size tif

ANNAPOLIS, MD (April 11, 2000) * President Bill Clinton meets Marylander Carol Price, whose son died from an accidental handgun shooting, as Governor Parris Glendening and Lt. Gov. Kathleen Kennedy Townsend look on.

full-size tif

ANNAPOLIS, MD (April 11, 2000) * Governor Parris Glendening gave the pen he used for the gun bill signing to President Bill Clinton. This bill requires all handgun sold after 2003 to have a built in child safety lock.

full-size tif

ANNAPOLIS, MD (April 11, 2000) * President Bill Clinton and Governor Glendening during Tuesday's bill signing inside the Maryland State House.

full-size tif

ANNAPOLIS, MD (April 11, 2000) * President Bill Clinton applauds Governor Glendening for placing Maryland on the forefront of the country for his work in handgun safety during Tuesday's historic bill signing.

★ Lt. Governor Townsend ★ Maryland & Its Government ★ Maryland Electronic Capital

© Copyright January 2000